

Starting her business at the age of 24, Kristen is one of the country's most recognized young leaders and entrepreneurs, known for Canada's largest and fastest growing beauty bar and retail company.

Kristen often works with professional women and entrepreneurs to provide tangible tips and tools that she has learned over the last 15+ years of her franchising success. Her vision to franchise "THE TEN SPOT" was driven by her passion to empower women to live their best life. She saw the opportunity for other women to experience the freedom and success she accomplished and knew that by developing processes and tools within her proven business model, other women could achieve that same success in markets across the world.

Her energetic and passionate personality lights up the room as she uses her unique ability to motivate and inspire women to go after their dreams. Kristen's story of hard work + setbacks leaps forward and all the fun in between is a refreshing tale of the female entrepreneur.
